This was the first general Biographical Dictionary in the Arabic language; and it remains a wonderful testimony to the learning, genius and industry of the author. The biographies are arranged in alphabetical order of names, and comprise distinguished individuals of every sect and nation in Islam, down to the thirteenth century, when Ibn Khalikan flourished. Muslim critics have blamed him for enlarging on the lives of poets and historical writers, at the expense of the learned doctors of law; but the very circumstance renders his book all the more valuable to the European reader. Even the poetical and elegant selections which fill these biographical notices are so extensive that an Anthology was culled from them by an ancient Arabic writer. The Editor has added in his notes all fresh information that could be acquired regarding each name mentioned in the text.

The boldness of Dr. Inman's opinions, and the variety and extent of his reading, make this one of the most remarkable books of our time. The large number of students who are now looking after truth in the History of Religions, will find in "Ancient Faiths" ample food for their digestion; a style and treatment of the subject widely different from the unsteady ramblings of Godfrey Higgins, whose "Anacalypsis" has formed for many their first revelation in the same direction of inquiry.

RICHARD'S NATURAL HISTORY OF MAN: comprising Inquiries into the Modifying Influences of Physical and Moral Agencies on the different Tribes of the Human Family. 4th Edition, Revised and Enlarged by EDWIN NORRIS, of the Royal Asiatic Society. 2 vols. royal 8vo, with 62 Coloured Plates, engraved on steel, and 100 Engravings on Wood, cloth, now getting scarce. 1853 1 16 0 — Imperfect sets completed. The title copy fetched 7l. 10s. This valuable work has hitherto been extremely rare; a few copies have been discovered in Mr. Rees' stock, hence the reduction in price. Lovers of Celtic literature should hasten to secure a copy, as when these are sold the price will revert to the late high figure.

OWEN'S (David, Brutus) BRUTUSIANA: see Casiliad detholodig o'i Gyfansoddiadau. Royal 8vo, 266 pp. double cols. cloth, 2se. 21s. 1850 0 7 6

An intimate connexion with the Welsh press for a long series of years, during which the Author has been engaged as Editor of several Welsh Periodicals, has enabled him to produce from time to time a variety of Treatises and Articles which have been very generally acceptable and popular, owing to their entertaining and moral character.

With an English Translation, and copious notes. Edited by J. WILLIAMS AB ITHIEL. Thick 8vo, pp. ccxviii and 351, cloth. 1850 1 16 0

It is expected that this will prove the standard Grammar of the Welsh language, calculated as it will be to aid in the composition of modern Cymraeg, and to unravel the peculiar structure of the ancient and mediæval literature.

LIVES OF THE CAMBRO BRITISH SAINTS, from Ancient Welsh and Latin Manuscripts, with English Translations and Notes. By W. J. REES. Royal 8vo, pp. 640, facsimiles, cloth. 1853 1 1 0

HERALDIC VISITATIONS OF WALES

and the MARCHES, in the time of Queen Elizabeth and James I. By LEWIS DWYNN, Deputy Herald at Arms for Wales, from original manuscripts, together with an introduction and numerous explanatory Notes. Edited by Sir SAMUEL RUSH MEYRICK, 2 vols. imp. 4to, facsimiles, pedigrees, and coats of arms, now out of print and very rare, cloth. 1846 10 0 0

— the same, Vol. II., imp. 4to, facsimiles of autographs, cloth. 1846 5 0 0

These volumes are most important and interesting to the ancient families of the Principality, and to those who claim a Welsh descent, as they embody an inexhaustible stock of genealogical history from the earliest ages to the time of James I.; and in many instances the descents are, in the notes, continued to the present representatives.

"The work is one of those standard books of reference, without which the Welsh antiquary can hardly prosecute his genealogical researches."—Archæologia Cambrensis.

MEDDYGON MYDDVAI; or, the Physicians of Myddval: being a compendium of the medical practice of the celebrated Rhifallan and his Sons Cadwgan, Gruffudd, and Eilion, of Myddval, in Carmarthenshire, physicians to Rhys Gryg, Lord of Dynevor and Ystrad Fawr, son of Gruffudd Ap Rhys, the last Prince of South Wales, about the year 1290; from various ancient MSS. in the libraries of Jesus College, Oxford, Llanover, and Tonn; accompanied by an English translation. To which is prefixed the curious legend of the Lady of the Lake, called the Llany-van, from whom the above physicians were said to be descended. And a copious Herald, edited by J. WILLIAMS AB ITHIEL, M.A., and translated by JOHN FUGHE. Thick 8vo, pp. xxx and 470, cloth, 2se. 21s. 1861 0 7 6

BARDAS; or, BARDISM: a Collection of Original Documents, illustrative of the Theology, Discipline, and Usages of the Bardo-Druidic System of the Isle of Britain, with translations and notes, by J. WILLIAMS AB ITHIEL. Vol. I., all published, thick 8vo, pp. xxv and 425—a portion of the second volume, containing "Privilege and Usage," pp. 5-164, being all ever printed—together 2 vols. 8vo, cloth, 2se. 21s. 1852-72 0 16 0

The curious matter brought to light for the first time in this volume cannot fail to attract the particular attention of scholars, and to open a new and interesting era in the history of Welsh literature. The Welsh and English texts are placed opposite each other, an arrangement more convenient for the scholar, who may wish to test the accuracy of the translation by a reference to the original.

SHIRLEY (EVELYN PHILIP) STEM-MATA SHIRLEIANA; or the Annals of the Shirley Family, Lords of Neher Edmon in the county of Warwick, and of Shirley in the county of Derby. Second edition corrected and enlarged, 4to, pp. xii, and 432, with 45 fine woodcuts of views, monumental antiquities, seals, facsimile autographs, &c., as well as numerous smaller engravings of escutcheons. Cloth. 1853 3 8

Only 450 copies were printed, and of these very few will be for sale; it may therefore be safely predicted that the present price will soon be doubled. The first edition has been usually sold for 12 guineas.

SILVESTRE'S UNIVERSAL PALEOGRAPHY; or a Collection of Facsimiles of the Writings of every Age, taken from the most authentic manuscripts existing in the libraries of France, Italy, Germany, and England, containing upwards of 300 large and most beautifully executed facsimiles, taken from MSS. and other MSS., richly illuminated in the finest style of art. New and improved edition, arranged under the direction of Sir FREDERICK MADDEN, Keeper of the MSS. in the British Museum. 3 vols. atlas folio, elegantly half-bound morocco extra, gilt edges. 1853 31 10 0

This is, perhaps, the finest book in the world, and the most interesting to the scholar and the man of taste. Three hundred facsimiles of the choicest manuscripts, drawn up by no other recommendation than to state the fact. The work cost nearly twenty thousand pounds in getting up, and the expense was chiefly defrayed by the sale of the late Louis Philippe, who subscribed at the outset for sixty copies, at about 74s. each.

— The Historical and Descriptive Letterpress to the Preceding Work, by CHAMPOLLION FIGEAC and CHAMPOLLION JUN. Translated into English, with considerable additions and corrections, by Sir FREDERICK MADDEN. 3 vols. royal 8vo, half morocco extra, gilt edges (uniform with the folio work). 1853 2 8 0

— the same work, 3 vols. in extra cloth. 1853 1 16 0

These descriptive volumes contain a great deal of general information on the subject of ancient manuscripts, quite independent of the work to which they are an accessory.

SKEEN (WILLIAM) EARLY TYPOGRAPHY: an Essay on the Origin of Letterpress Printing. 8vo. (pub. in Ceylon at 21s.) half Roxburgh style. Colombo, 1872 0 12 0

SMITH'S (C. J.) HISTORICAL AND LITERARY CURIOSITIES: containing Facsimiles of Inscriptions, Localities, Engravings of Old Houses, Birthplaces, Portraits, Illuminated and Miscellaneous Manuscripts, &c. 4to, with 100 Plates, some illuminated (pub. at 4l. 4s.), elegantly half-bound olive morocco, uncut. 1847 2 5 0

A singularly amusing and interesting Repository, of which the contents are too multifarious to describe. We will only note that the Autograph Letters are chiefly of a literary character, and include such important ones as Coverdale, Sir Christopher Wren, Sir Isaac Newton, Cowley, Pope, Dryden, Gray, Milton, Prior, Smollett, Sterne, Locke, Burns, Steele, Hume, Dr. Johnson, Benjamin Franklin, William Penn, &c.

STEPHENS (George) THE OLD NORTHERN Runic MONUMENTS OF SCANDINAVIA AND ENGLAND, now first collected and deciphered. Parts I., II., folio, containing pp. lxx and lxxx, many hundred Woodcuts of Sculptured Grooves and Pillars, Weapons, Ornaments, &c., and numerous large Plates of Gold, Silver, and Bronze Art Relics, executed in gold and silver, sewed. Cheapinghaven [Copenhagen], 1866-68 5 0 0

Now ready.
LORD STRATFORD DE REDCLIFFE'S HISTORICAL PLAY. — ALFRED THE GREAT IN ATHELNEY, with a preliminary scene. Post 8vo, xiv and 178 pp. half Roxburgh. 1875 0 9 0

— the same, large paper, demy 8vo, half Roxburgh. 1875 1 11 6

The entire impression was limited to 250 copies, and 20 copies for sale on large paper.

MR. JOHN RICHARD GREEN'S

SHORT HISTORY OF THE ENGLISH PEOPLE.

With Coloured Maps, Genealogical Tables, and Chronological Annals. Crown 8vo, 8s. 6d.

"We know of no record of the whole drama of English history to be compared with it. We know of none that is so distinctly a work of genius,.... The early history is admirably done; the clear and full narrative which Mr. Green is able to put together of the earliest days of the English people is a wonderful contrast to the confused and unscientific talk so common in most of the books which it is to be hoped Mr. Green's volume will displace."—Pall Mall Gazette."To say that Mr. Green's is better than those which have preceded it, would be to convey a very inadequate idea of its merits. It stands alone as the one general history of the country, for the sake of which all others, if young and old are wise, will be speedily and surely set aside."—Academy.HISTORY AND LITERATURE
PRIMERS.

EDITED BY

JOHN RICHARD GREEN,

Author of "A Short History of the English People."

"Uniformly good and far ahead of any small school histories that have appeared before them."—Saturday Review."The Primers are models of simplicity, compression, and clearness."—Nonconformist.

NEW NOVELS AT ALL LIBRARIES.

OUR NEXT NEIGHBOUR. By Courtenay
GRANT, Author of "A Losing Hazard," &c. In 3 vols.
crown 8vo.

IN THE COUNSELLOR'S HOUSE. By E. MARLITT, Author of "The Second Wife." In 3 vols.
crown 8vo.

The SUN-MAID. By Miss Grant, Author of "Artiste," &c. In 3 vols. crown 8vo.

"It is very delightful now and then, when threading the paths of fiction, to be taken completely out of the ordinary track and treated to new scenes and new ideas. When this is done, even by a writer of only mediocre abilities, the effect is pleasing; but when, as in the present case, we have to do with one possessed of considerable power, thoroughly conversant with her subjects, and able to transport the reader wherever she pleases, and to keep his interest always alive, the study of such a book is an especial treat."—Morning Post.
"It is a pleasure only too rare to come across a novel so entirely healthy and pure in tone and so satisfactory in point of workmanship as 'The Sun-Maid.' There is much freshness and some poetical power in the writer's description of nature. She can paint vividly."—Echo.

SUCCESS: AND HOW HE WON IT. From the German of E. WERNER, by CHRISTINA TYRELL.
In 3 vols. crown 8vo.

"We have in this book a good plot well worked out, and full of ingenuities and interesting thought."—The World.
"Success: and How He Won It" deserves all praise. The story itself is charming and original, and it is told with a delicacy which makes it irresistibly fascinating and attractive."—Standard.

JENNIE of "The PRINCE'S." In 3 vols.
crown 8vo.

"A bright and original story, pleasantly told."—Saturday Review.
"The plot of the story is developed with spirit and vigour, and there is a good deal of human nature in the characters."—Fall Mail Gazette.
"A very fascinating story. By an anonymous author, perhaps a first production, and avowedly written with a purpose, it yet delights us and keeps us enchained from the moment when we first make Jennie's acquaintance until we part with her at the end."—Morning Post.

"John Holdsworth, Chief Mate." In 3 vols. crown 8vo.

STUDENT'S GUIDE TO THE UNIVERSITY OF CAMBRIDGE.

REVISED AND CORRECTED IN ACCORDANCE WITH RECENT REGULATIONS.

"Partly with the view of assisting parents, guardians, schoolmasters, and students intending to enter their names at the University—partly also for the benefit of Undergraduates themselves—a very complete, though concise, volume has been issued, which leaves little or nothing to be desired. For lucid arrangement, and a rigid adherence to what is positively useful, we know of few manuals that could compete with this Student's Guide. It reflects no little credit on the University to which it supplies an unpretending, but complete, introduction."—Saturday Review.

NEW WORKS.

The PRINCIPLES of HEBREW GRAMMAR.

By J. P. N. LAND, Professor of Logic and Metaphysics in the University of Leyden. Translated from the Dutch by REGINALD LANE POOLE, Balliol College, Oxford. Part I.—Sounds. Part II.—Words. Crown 8vo, pp. xx+220, cloth, 7s. 6d.

"The Grammar of Professor Land does not belong to the ordinary class. It aims at originality, and is unlike its predecessors. Disarding the commentaries of grammarians on the pointed text, the author falls back on the text with its points alone, and attempts a revision of the whole grammatical system, based upon a comparison of the given phenomena with one another, as well as with those observable in other languages. . . . Such procedure reduces the whole grammar to rule, to a greater extent than it had been before, simplifying points hitherto obscure, and accounting for modes of human speech philosophically. . . . Marks of acuteness and ability distinguish it throughout. It will arrest the notice of scholars, and suggest new ideas." Athenæum.

EXTRACTS FROM REVIEWS.

"We welcome the appearance of a Supplementary Series of 'Ancient Classics for English Readers,' which was certainly very much required, if the publication was to answer the purpose for which it was originally designed.....Mr. Collins' 'Livy' is almost, if not quite, equal to the best of the preceding series.....Mr. Church's 'Essay' is a very complete and scholarly performance."—Times.
"We welcome the appearance of a Supplementary Series of the 'Ancient Classics for English Readers.' Mr. Collins commences it with a volume that is creditable to his skill."—Spectator.
